Social Media Competition Terms and Conditions

No purchase is necessary. We are giving one individual the chance to receive one Škoda hamper.

More detail on entry requirements is within each competition entry post on Facebook, and Instagram – entry requirements vary per platform. There is no cash alternative. The prize is not transferable. The competition is not open to any employees of Caffyns Group or their direct family members including mother, father, sibling, child, grandparent, or partner. Only one entry per person. You can enter the competition via Facebook, Instagram or Twitter. There will be one winner selected from each platform. The winners will be selected at random from all eligible entries on these platforms. The winners will be notified on social media within one working day of the closing date. The winners' names and winning entries will be used in post-promotional publicity. All competition entries may be used in the post-promotional activity. This competition is open to residents of the United Kingdom only. This competition is in no way associated with or endorsed by Facebook or Instagram. The promoter's decision is final.

Entries close at midnight on 12/11/2026.
